ଉପସ୍ଥିତମାନଙ୍କୁ ନିଶ୍ଚିତ ମହାତ୍ମ୍ୟ ଯାହା ଦେଖି ଏଠାରେ କିଛି ଧରଣର ମାତା-ପିତାଙ୍କୁ ଦେଖିବା ପାଇଁ ନିଶ୍ଚିତ ଭାବରେ ଅନୁରୋଧ କରାଯାଉଛି । ଏହିପରି ଭାବରେ ଯଦି କିଛି ପଦକ୍ଷେପ ନେବାକୁ ନିଶ୍ଚିତ ଭାବରେ ଅନୁରୋଧ କରାଯାଉଛି ।

Co-operations with the Oriyas, it can be easily imagined from the last paragraph of Mr. J. N. Bose's speech on Resolution IX where he openly stigmatises a leader of the Oriyas as a "wag of Orissa," "false patriot" and so on. Lastly the strain of invective against a high Government Officer and his work in which Mr. J. N. Bose indulges in his above speech can never be endorsed by the Domiciled Bengalees who are a proverbially law-abiding people. The Domiciled Bengalee advocates of the Conference can now easily see how they have been led, rather misled, into taking part in the proceedings of such a Conference.

କେନ୍ଦ୍ରୀୟ ସମାଜ । ଏହିପରି ଭାବରେ ଯଦି କିଛି ପଦକ୍ଷେପ ନେବାକୁ ନିଶ୍ଚିତ ଭାବରେ ଅନୁରୋଧ କରାଯାଉଛି ।

III Not to speak of harmony and friendly co-operation with our Oriya brethren, one of the leading pro-Conference men, a young pioneer hailing from the south, has already given a specimen of his broad mindedness by giving vent to his feelings of animosity before a Professor of the local College against a candidate for a scholarship in the Agricultural College, because he happened to be the son of a gentleman not joining the Conference, although he was physically and educationally fitter than the nominee backed by him and his party.

କେନ୍ଦ୍ରୀୟ ସମାଜ । ଏହିପରି ଭାବରେ ଯଦି କିଛି ପଦକ୍ଷେପ ନେବାକୁ ନିଶ୍ଚିତ ଭାବରେ ଅନୁରୋଧ କରାଯାଉଛି ।

IV From the letters read at the Conference from Mr. Surendra Nath Banerjee and some absentee Landlords (e. g. Maharajadhiraj of Bardwan and the like) who have Zemindaries for over half a century in Orissa, it appears that they do not like to put forward any claim as Bengalee Settlers, although it is a fact that they have within their own estates houses and buildings in comparison with which those of the organisers of the Conference will dwindle into insignificance. These landlords do not scramble for a seat in the Council nor do they mean any mischief either to the Oriyas or the Domiciled Bengalees.

କେନ୍ଦ୍ରୀୟ ସମାଜ । ଏହିପରି ଭାବରେ ଯଦି କିଛି ପଦକ୍ଷେପ ନେବାକୁ ନିଶ୍ଚିତ ଭାବରେ ଅନୁରୋଧ କରାଯାଉଛି ।

V The benign Government must have been fully aware that Rai Bahadur J. N. Bose, Mr. J. N. Bose and the like cannot claim to be classed as Domiciled Bengalees, that they have their homes in Bengal and their sympathies are centered outside Orissa. Under these circumstances it is a pity that these gentlemen could be elected as President and Secretary of a Conference pretending to watch the interests of the Domiciled Bengalees and the Oriyas. There can have been no objection or protest against a Conference of this class of men styled as temporary-settlers' Conference or the like; but their attempt to link the Domiciled Bengalees with them (as this linking will prove prejudicial to the interests of the Domiciled Bengalees) is fraught with danger. The lot of the Domiciled Bengalees is so indissolubly connected with that of their Oriya brethren that they cannot but stand side by side with one another in prosperity and adversity. But the position of the Neo-Settlers is quite different. There is every likelihood of their decamping bag and baggage whenever they would not find it profitable to continue their stay in Orissa. But the position of the Domiciled Bengalees of Orissa has been clearly defined by the Government from time to time and is not at all ambiguous as some suppose it to be. There is, therefore, hardly any necessity for mixing with the New or temporary Settlers and thereby creating fresh difficulties in future. It is never too late to mend one's ways. There is still time enough for the misguided Domiciled Bengalee gentlemen to retrace their steps and come back to their fold out of which they have been led astray as some of them have already expressed their views to do so in the near future.

ଉତ୍କଳବାସୀ ।

THE TEMPLE MANAGER

By which we mean the Jagannath Temple Manager. There is such a thing as fitness of things. A square pole can never be driven into a round hole. Raj Kishore Babu came to Puri because he was ordained to come. He came, though against his will, yet, it was the Lord Jagannath's will. A rehabilitation was necessary as a sinquo-non. He came, he served and fulfilled his ten years' mission, the Lord's mission. He cleared the Augean stable. His term served, he went away though not without risk. But Lord Jagannath saved him. Truth triumphed and honesty saved, saved against the intrigues of those who ought to have known better. Let that go. Then came in Rai Shahab Gouri Shyam Mohanti an officer of character, and merit. He managed somehow. People say that as soon as he got the appointment, he got himself puffed up by second hand means. Of what we know he is not the man to get himself puffed up. But there is such a thing as perversity of human nature. Rai Shahab is a straight man and during his tenure of office people might have taken advantage of him. Be that as it may. One thing is patent that he has not been able to establish his personality. It is not his fault. Ask the people of Puri and they will say in one breath that the personality established by Raj Kishore Babu is a hard nut to be crushed or preponderated. Vain attempt to exceed. We are exceedingly glad that the choice fell on Balmakunda Babu, an officer full of tact, intelligence and experience. He combines in him the true type of conservatism and modernism, and we hope he will prove it in his new sphere and we know he will. Lord Jagannath is our all in all and Balmakunda Babu will do his best to reestablish the prestige left by Raj Bahadur Rajkishore Das whose services though not recognized by the Khantifidden Raja was recognized by our Government.

PLEA FOR SEPARATE PROVINCE FOR ORIYAS

At yesterday's sitting of the conference, the Oriya delegates were conspicuous by their absence to a man. From inquiries it was understood that, on the previous night, the Oriya member of the Subjects Committee brought forward a motion asking for the recognition of the principle of territorial redistribution on linguistic basis with the suggestion that the Oriya-speaking tracts be brought under one administration. It would seem that the Telegu members could neither recognise the principle nor adopt the suggestion. Therefore the Oriya section withdrew in a body, and abstained from attending yesterday's sitting. They seem to have submitted resignations of delegateship with covering letters stating the reasons.

CONFERENCE TO DECIDE

Later they summoned an urgent meeting of the Oriyas to concert measures for future work. Mr. ... bring about a reconciliation between the parties, and more than once in the day interviews were had between Messrs. Kesav Pillay, Patro and the Zamindar of Dharakote, whose signature, along with that of the Zamindar of Mandasa, was in the letter. Both parties took a determined stand. The president announced when the conference reassembled after lunch that both parties agreed to the bringing of a resolution before the whole house this morning, and to abide by the result, and adjourned the sitting.

President's Appeal to Seceders

The Conference met this morning at 8. Some Oriya gentlemen, including the Zamindar of Dharakote, were present as visitors at the intercession of Mr. Kesav Pillay and Mr. Patro, but refused to be called delegates as they did not wish to move the resolution, owing to the preponderance of Telegus. The President narrated the history of the episode in detail, reading the communications passed. Then the President reviewed the position, and deprecated the idea of seceding as such a little, domestic quarrel made them forget the larger issues at a critical time like the present in their history. Such dissensions, though they might not be taken advantage of by their opponents, might yet be pointed to by them as an argument for the Indians' unfitness for Self-Government. They must realise, if the greater national ideal was achieved, others of less magnitude would be within their own hands. He expressed his sympathy with the Oriyas, as they said their interests would be best served by being added to the Orissa province, so that they might have facilities for educational improvement and social advancement. But they need not for that sever from the Telugus. They might all work together for good affecting them all in conference like that. They might form a separate association to promote the welfare of the Oriyas alone, constantly agitating for their ideal. He exhorted them to strongly agitate without cutting away from the Telugus. As for public purposes each of them would be better for coming in contact with the other. He regretted the decision taken by the Oriyas, not to move the resolution in that Conference. He thanked the Zamindar of Dharakote for being present with others even as visitors.
