

Lesson - XI

THE LION AND THE MOUSE

- Read out each expression drawing your pupils' attention to the picture above it. Let them repeat after you. Help them say the expressions at least three times.
- Point out one picture at a time and ask your pupils to say the expression.

A lion

A mouse

The lion is sleeping.

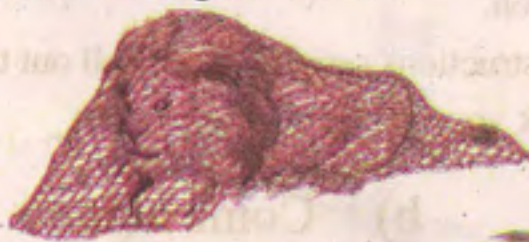

The mouse is on the lion.

The lion caught the mouse.

The mouse is running away from the lion.

The lion is in the net.

The mouse cut the net.

The mouse and the lion are now friends.

Activity - 1

What is this ?

What is this ?

What is this ?

Where is the mouse ?

Where is the lion ?

Activity - 2

Ask your pupils to look at each picture and fill in the blank in the sentence below it.

The _____ is sleeping.

The _____ is on the lion.

The lion is in the _____

Activity - 3

The _____ and the _____ are friends.

Ask your pupils to join the dots of each picture and then colour it.

