

Scrambled Science Careers

In the "Science Careers" video, eight scientist role models told about the advantages of a career in science. Let's begin exploring their science careers!

Read each item below. Write the name of the science career described on the blank line. (TIP: Check the WORD BOX for the spellings of the science careers.)

1. I study the biology of cells.

I am a _____.

2. I study the chemical molecules that contain carbon.

I am a _____.

3. I study the building blocks of life known as DNA.

I am a _____.

4. I study healthy and diseased immune systems.

I am a _____.

5. I write directions that tell you how to take your medicines.

I am a _____.

6. I help educate the community about health and safety issues.

I am a _____.

7. I study bacteria.

I am a _____.

8. I make sure the Mars Rover computer works with the flight software.

I am a _____.

a. Epidemiologist
b. Medical Writer
c. Microbiologist
d. Mars Rover Systems Engineer

e. Scientist Sequencing DNA
f. Immunologist
g. Organic Chemist
h. Molecular Biologist

Name _____ [Answers: 1.h; 2.g; 3.e; 4.f; 5.b; 6.a; 7.c; 8.d]